2. Sports Workshop

As part of the B. Ed curriculum, workshop for developing Sports competence to organize events in schools was conducted on 9/07/2022 for the student teachers. Instructions were provided on the following sessions:

a) Yoga & Aerobics

Workshop for yoga was conducted in the college under the guidance of Fr. Peter. He demonstrated various yoga asanas and its benefits to the student teachers. Also during this workshop a session was arranged for the aerobics class which was led by Dr. Ceby George, Assistant Professor, St Joseph College of Teacher Education For Women, Ernakulam.

Activities in school

This workshop helped the student teachers during their internship practice while teaching various yoga asanas, aerobics exercises and their benefits to the students during Physical Education period in the assigned school.

Yoga and aerobic training in schools by interns

b) Organizing and Participating in Sports events

In the next session organization of various sports events and participation in sports meet was led by Dr. Ceby George, assistant professor, St Joseph college of Teacher Education For Women, Ernakulam. Gave instructions regarding the rules and regulations of various sports events. This workshop helped the student teachers to conduct the annual sports meet in an organized manner.

Activities in school

This helped them during their internship practice to engage students in various sports activities during their physical training period. The experience gained through this workshop and internship practice will help the student teachers in their future.

c) First Aid

Workshop on First Aid was carried out by Dr. Shigy Francis, HOD & Senior Consultant, Lissie Hospital Ernakulam. She demonstrated all the basic First aid like triangle sling, choking, CPR. The class was very informative and we gained knowledge how to handle the emergency situations in day to day life. It will also help us the budding teachers.

Activities in School

On the basis of the workshop, during the internship period student trainees took Health classes for the students.

3. Cultural Workshop

As part of the B. Ed curriculum, workshop for developing Sports competence to organize events in schools was conducted on 09/07/2022 for the student teachers.

Instructions were provided on the following sessions:

a) Film Review

Films play an important role in today's society. Being the people to build the future society the student teachers of our college were given a chance to participate in a workshop on film review, conducted by Mrs. Anu Cleetus, assistant professor, St Joseph College of Teacher Education For Women, Ernakulam. Gave instructions to write film review effectively. This workshop helped the students to enhance their skills to write film reviews. After the session trainees were asked to write film review on any educational related film. Further corrections on prepared review were given to the students.

Activities in school

This workshop helped the student teachers to incorporate the acquired knowledge in the schools during their internship practice. Trainees showed short films and educationally relevant films to the students and students were asked to write review on the particular film. This helped the students to develop their observation skills as well as critical evaluation skills.

b) Criteria for evaluating different Arts forms

As part of the orientation class, Dr. Marin Jose, Assistant Professor, St. Joseph College of Teacher Education For Women led the session of Criteria for evaluating different Art forms. Student teachers were taught about the Criteria for evaluating different art forms as well as to judge art forms effectively. After the session trainees were asked to prepare criteria of evaluation for two art forms.

Activities in school

During internship period, workshop helped the teacher trainees while judging different co-curricular activities. As well as enabled them to judge objectively.

Evaluating cultural activities

d) Arts day

As a part of B.Ed curriculum Arts fest was conducted for the second year students of St Joseph College of Teacher Education For Women, Ernakulam on 29/03/2023. The name of the art fest was [Bharatham]. Various on stage as well as offstage events were organized and participated by the students. The teacher coordinator of the programme was Mrs. Anu Cleetus, Assistant professor St. Joseph College of Teacher Education For Women, Ernakulam. The program was inaugurated by Dr. Megha Joby, a well-known dance artist. The trainees actively participated in various events. It helped them to gain an awareness regarding their skills and talents and the importance of various art skills in the purpose of teaching and learning. It helped to realize that learning is not something which is confined only to the classrooms and it should extended beyond the classrooms and should make use of the skills and talents. Along with the academics, extra-curricular activities of students also play an important role in the holistic development of an individual.

Orientation Report on Malayali Manga Competition

The college organized an orientation session for the Malayali Manga Competition within the TTC (Teacher Training Course) batch. This event took place on 1st November 2022, at 11 am in the TTC hall. The Principal and teachers of TTC extended an invitation to M.Ed. teacher educands to join the judging panel for the Malayali Manga Competition.

Ms. Jincy A.P, the Principal of D.El.Ed, provided an orientation to the M.Ed. teacher educands, briefing them on their role as judges for the competition. Saniya Kurian, Bilby Thomas and Krishna T.D from the M.Ed. program enthusiastically participated in the event. Prior to the competition, the teachers provided the judging panel with instructions and criteria to consider while evaluating the program.

The experience proved to be a valuable opportunity and a unique platform for learning. The distinct feature of the competition was the active participation of TTC students, with representation from both first and second years. The competition comprised three rounds, and after each round, filtration occurred based on the provided instructions and criteria. The top three participants were selected, and the principal distributed prizes.

Being part of the judging panel offered the M.Ed. teacher educands insights into the organization, execution, and analysis of a competition with a defined set of criteria. The unwavering support and guidance from the teachers were invaluable throughout the process. The event concluded with student performances and a vote of thanks delivered by the principal, making it a comprehensive and enriching experience for all involved.

Report on National Seminar

The college facilitated teacher educands to engage in a seminar held at MG University, Kottayam, where they had the opportunity to present their papers with the encouragement and support of their teacher educators. The teacher educators played a crucial role in assisting the preparation of papers and guiding the teacher educands in delivering presentations during the seminar. This process not only motivated the teacher educands but also bolstered their confidence, enabling them to actively participate and present their papers before the audience, thereby enhancing their communication, presentation, creative, and problem-solving skills, while also helping them overcome stage fear and fostering a sense of team spirit.

The National Seminar on Youth@75 took place on 1st and 2th March 2023, at MG University, Kottayam. The overarching objective of the seminar was to delve into the role of teachers in shaping the future of the youth, especially within the framework of India's vision for Youth@75. The event served as a platform for the exchange of ideas, insights, and best practices among teachers, education experts, policymakers, and various stakeholders. With a focus on holistic development, critical thinking, and fostering responsible citizenship among the youth, the two-day seminar featured multiple sessions addressing different facets of the teacher's role in youth development.

The seminar underscored the significance of integrating technology into education, promoting vocational skills, and nurturing an entrepreneurial spirit among the youth. Moreover, it emphasized the importance of a multidisciplinary approach to education, with special attention given to the development of soft skills like communication, collaboration, and leadership.

During the seminar, the teacher educands actively participated, motivated and supported by their teacher educators. This participation not only enriched their educational experience but also aligned with the seminar's objectives of encouraging dialogue and collaboration to shape a more dynamic and impactful role for teachers in the future development of the youth.

Report on participation of MGU youth festival ANEKHA 2023

The college extended an opportunity for teacher educands to partake in the MG University Youth Festival Aneka. The teacher educator, Miss Aswathy D.V, played a pivotal role by providing essential information and assistance to facilitate the participation of interested individuals in university festivals. The MG University Youth Festival 2023 – Aneka took place from 8th – 12th February 2023, in Ernakulam, drawing participation from around ten thousand candidates representing over 200 colleges under MG University. The festival featured a diverse array of programs encompassing 61 category items.

The youth festival of Mahatma Gandhi University, Kottayam, known as 'Aneka,' kicked off in Ernakulam with nearly one lakh students from 209 colleges across five districts participating, as reported by the organizers. The events unfolded across seven venues, with five at Maharaja's College and one each at Government Law College and the Durbar Hall ground.

M.Ed. teacher educands from the college actively participated in this enriching program. To support their involvement, teacher educators, particularly Miss Aswathy D.V, offered necessary guidance and encouragement, ensuring the students were well-prepared for the festival. The participation in such events proved to be instrumental in fostering competitive strength, creativity, interaction skills, and cooperation among the students.

The fest's inauguration was marked by the presence of theatre and film artist Nilambur Ayisha, and the event was presided over by varsity union chairperson Jinisha Rajan at the main venue, Nangeli. Renowned writers Benyamin and GR Indugopan served as chief guests, with the organizing committee chaired by Kochi corporation mayor M Anilkumar.

Participating in the MG University Youth Festival not only showcased the teacher educands talents but also provided numerous benefits. The experience contributed to the development of competitive strength, fostering creativity and enhancing interaction skills and cooperation among the participating students. Such opportunities play a crucial role in the holistic growth and skill development of the individuals involved.

Report on Talent Hunt

Name of the Event	Talent Hunt
Objectives	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>To promote all the talents in a creative and coherent way.</li><li>To boost the self confidence in personal skills</li></ul>
Date	29/11/2022
Time	3 PM to 4 pm
Duration	1 hour
Resource person	Sheeba A.S
Beneficiaries	M.Ed Educands.
Venue	M.Ed classroom

The college organized a talent hunt for the newly enrolled M.Ed. teacher educands, a program organized by the M.Ed. 2022–2024 batch students. The talent hunt, scheduled on 29th November 2022, from 2 pm to 3.30 pm, aimed to showcase the diverse talents of the freshers. The faculty member Mrs. Sheeba A.S provided orientation for conducting the program on 27th November 2022, ensuring the smooth execution of the event.

Taking place at the college premises, the talent hunt commenced with a warm welcome by Sr. Aiswarya from the first year of M.Ed. All the new M.Ed. teacher educands participated with great enthusiasm, presenting their talents in a magnificent display. The event was graced by the presence of Associate Professor Mrs. Sheeba A.S. and teacher educands from the second year of M.Ed., who attended to show their support and encouragement to the participants.

The talent showcase provided a platform for the freshers to exhibit their various skills and abilities. The supportive atmosphere, coupled with the involvement of faculty and senior teacher educands, created a positive environment for the participants to express themselves confidently. The event concluded by 3 pm with the expression of gratitude through the vote of thanks delivered by Mrs. Riya Sarvina Fernandez.

The talent hunt organized by the M.Ed. 2022–2024 batch served as a platform for the new teacher educands to showcase their talents, fostering a sense of camaraderie and encouragement within the academic community. The participation of both faculty and senior teacher educands underscored the collaborative and supportive ethos of the college, providing a positive and enriching experience for all involved.
