The event aimed to commemorate the achievements of the students, recognize the contributions of the alumnae and foster a sense of community within the institution. The festivities commenced with the formal inauguration ceremony, graced by esteemed guests, faculty members, students, and alumni. The event began with a traditional lamp-lighting ceremony, symbolizing the enlightenment and knowledge the college imparts. A distinguished guest, Lissy Chakkalakal (Principal Our Lady's HSS, Thoppumpady – Alumnae) delivered an inspiring keynote address, setting the tone for the day's celebrations.

The College Day provided a platform to acknowledge and appreciate the academic excellence of students. Various awards were conferred upon meritorious individuals for their outstanding performance in academics, research, and extracurricular activities. This not only motivated the recipients but also encouraged healthy competition among students. The event showcased the diverse talents of the students through a cultural extravaganza. Dance performances, skits, and musical presentations captivated the audience, reflecting the vibrant and creative spirit of the college community. A significant part of the celebration was dedicated to honoring the achievements of the alumnae who have made significant contributions to their respective fields. The Alumnae Award Day recognized their accomplishments and provided a platform for the current students to interact with and gain insights from these successful individuals. The College Day & Alumnae Award Day 2021 at St. Joseph College of Teacher Education for Women, Ernakulam, was a resounding success, encapsulating the spirit of academic excellence, cultural diversity, and the enduring connection between the institution and its alumni. The event not only celebrated achievements but also laid the foundation for future collaborations and growth within the St. Joseph College community.

'Saisei 2020' – Hiroshima-Nagasaki Day

Programme Report

Every year, it is commemorated as Hiroshima day and Nagasaki day on 6th and 9th of August respectively across the world. These days remind people of the atomic bombing tragedy that took place in Hiroshima and Nagasaki in Japan in 1945 during the Second World War. The atomic bombs dropped both at Hiroshima and Nagasaki killed many people and led many others to suffer from cancers and other sicknesses due to the high nuclear radiation and some population were left with fatal injuries. The Hiroshima and Nagasaki days are observed with an aim to raise awareness regarding the devastating impact of nuclear weapons and to prevent further tragedy and deaths caused by nuclear weapons. The Hiroshima and Nagasaki days are also observed as an opportunity to pay tribute to and honour the victims and the survivors of the atomic bombing tragedy. The year 2020 marked the 75th anniversary of the tragic incident that shook Japan in 1945.

St. Joseph College of Teacher Education for Women, Ernakulam observed Hiroshima-Nagasaki Day, 'Saisei 2020' on 10th August 2020 from 3.00 PM to 3.30 PM via online platforms including Google Meet and YouTube. The whole event was organized and coordinated by faculty members and student teachers of Physical Science optional. The event aimed at generating awareness regarding the deadly and devastating impacts of nuclear bombs and to commemorate the Hiroshima and Nagasaki atomic bomb incidents that took place in 1945 and to honour the survivors and the victims of the bombing. Even though, St. Joseph College of Teacher Education for Women, Ernakulam observed the Hiroshima-Nagasaki Day on 10th of August 2020, the observatory activities and competitions were conducted on 8th and 9th of August 2020. All student teachers and faculty members participated in the event.

The event, 'Saisei 2020' started exactly at 3.00 PM via Google Meet and live on YouTube. The emcee for the event was performed by Ms. Rosemary Sebastian, student teacher from Physical Science optional. Ms. Rosemary Sebastian officially welcomed all of the participants to the event. The event started with a small video presentation on the journey of St. Joseph College of Teacher Education for Women, Ernakulam in observing Hiroshima-Nagasaki Remembrance day prepared by Ms. Livi George, student teacher from Physical Science optional. The video also covered the competitions conducted as a predecessor to the event 'Saisei 2020'. The competitions were conducted at intercollegiate level. The key competitions conducted as part of Hiroshima-Nagasaki day were:

- Memoir writing competition
- Caption writing competition
- Poster making competition
- Cartoon making competition

Memoir writing and caption writing competitions were conducted on 8th August 2020 and poster making and cartoon making competitions were conducted at 9th August 2020. The 'Phoenix of Hiroshima' was the theme for memoir writing competition. The theme for poster making competition was 'Peace on Earth'. 'Upon the Wings of Peace' was the theme set for cartoon making competition. Student teachers from various colleges and universities actively participated in the competitions. All the information regarding the competitions were shared via whatsapp, an online platform.

The video presentation was succeeded by the presidential address. The presidential address for the event was delivered by Dr. Alice Joseph, Principal at St. Joseph College of Teacher Education for Women, Ernakulam. Dr. Alice Joseph elucidated that an individual's talent is unique and is set apart from knowledge. She added that every talent is a gift coming down from the almighty, the father of heavenly lights. She enunciated that the holy Bible spells out that all individuals are born with distinct talents that set each individual unique one from the other. And when one discovers his talents that god has gifted him with and use them to glorify him, he or she experiences a fuller life. She reminded all of the student teachers who participated in the event to stand up for the peace and goodness of the community. Dr. Alice Joseph congratulated all the student teachers who took part in various competitions as part of 'Sasei 2020'. After the main address, she announced the winners for the competitions conducted as part of Hiroshima-Nagasaki day, 2020.

The first prize for the caption writing competition was secured by Ms. Gopika K Nair, student teacher from Auxilium College of Education, Angamaly. Dr. Alice Joseph appreciated all the student teachers who participated and won the competitions and also appreciated Dr. Josephine Joseph, Assistant Professor in Physical Science Education at St. Joseph College of Teacher Education for Women, Ernakulam for organizing and coordinating the event successfully. All of the participants were provided with e-certificates.

The presidential address by the Principal was succeeded by a video presentation by Ms. Livi George, student teacher from Physical Science optional which took all the participants to have a glimpse into the historical moments of Hiroshima-Nagasaki incidents. The video briefly reminded all of the viewers about the black days of 1945 in Hiroshima and Nagasaki that shook the humanity of the world. It was on 6th August 1945, the world's first atomic bomb namely 'Little Boy' was dropped in Hiroshima. Three days apart the 'Little Boy' attack, America dropped more powerful and complex atomic bomb 'Fat Man' on 9th August 1945 in the Japanese city, Nagasaki. Both the atomic bombings instantly killed a large population of these Japanese cities and left many of them to suffer from fatal injuries and other chronic illnesses due to the high radiation energy. And with that, Japan officially surrendered the war and thus the Second World War came to an end. The United States Government programme, the 'Manhattan Project' built these atomic bombs during World War II.

After the video presentation, a quiz competition was conducted as part of the event, 'Saisei 2020' via the app 'Kahoot!'. The link for the quiz competition was shared among the participants via Google Meet and YouTube chat boxes. The total duration of the quiz competition was 5 minutes. Independence Day Celebration 2020

On August 15, 2019, the Faculty of St. Joseph College of Teacher Education for Women in Ernakulam organized a grand celebration in honour of India's 73rd Independence Day. The event was marked by patriotism, unity, and a deep sense of pride in our nation's history and achievements. The celebrations were conducted online because of the covid pandemic, through Google Meet platform. The Independence Day celebration was a significant event at St. Joseph College of Teacher Education for Women. It aimed to instill a sense of national pride and respect for the sacrifices made by our freedom fighters among the students and faculty members.

The event commenced with the unfurling of the national flag by the college principal, Rev. Dr. Sr. Alice Joseph. The flag hoisting was accompanied by the national anthem, which was sung with great enthusiasm. As an institution dedicated to the holistic development of future educators, the celebration emphasized the role of teachers in shaping the values and

Programme Report

The college organized two-day Yoga workshops from 22- 25 February 2021 , focusing on promoting healthy living and fostering harmony between the mind and body through Yoga. Conducted as a half-day program from 9:00 am to 12:00 pm and facilitated by Fr. Peter Thiruthanathil, the workshop aimed to instill the principles of Yoga in the participating student teachers.

The student teachers were divided into two groups, labeled Batch A and Batch B. Beyond the physical aspects of Yoga poses and exercises, the workshop delved into the profound philosophy of Yoga, exploring its numerous benefits and theoretical foundations. The resource person provided insights into various "asanas" or postures, detailing their respective advantages, making the session highly informative for the student teachers.

WORKSHOP ON ART AND DRAMA

The Workshop on Art and Drama for the year 2020-21 was held from 12th January 2021 to 13th January 2021. This annual event has consistently aimed to nurture creativity, artistic expression, and theatrical skills among participants. Building upon the success of previous years, this workshop continued to be a platform for creative exploration. The workshop was expertly led by Fr. Thomas Nangelimalil, renowned for his expertise in theater education. His guidance added significant value to the event. The workshop took place at the MULTI-PURPOSE HALL of St. Joseph College of Teacher Education for Women, Ernakulam. Participants engaged in the workshop from 9:00 AM to 4:30 PM daily, ensuring an intensive and enriching experience.

Activities and Learning:

1. Theatre Education: Fr. Thomas Nangelimalil, an authority in theater education, provided participants with in-depth knowledge about the world of theater, its educational significance, and its role in personal development.
2. Performance and Expression: Participants actively took part in various theater exercises and performances, honing their ability to express themselves through drama and art.
3. Collaborative Projects: Group projects encouraged teamwork and the creation of meaningful artistic pieces, fostering cooperation and creativity.
4. Creative Workshops: Diverse forms of art were explored, enabling participants to unleash their creativity, experiment with different mediums, and expand their artistic horizons.

The Workshop on Art and Drama for the year 2020-21 built upon the successes of previous years. It was an enriching experience for all participants, thanks to the expert guidance of Fr. Thomas Nangelimalil. The workshop contributed significantly to the cultural and educational development of all those involved, nurturing creativity and artistic expression.

Outcomes of the Workshop on Art and Drama

1. Cultivating Creativity: To stimulate and nurture creativity among participants, encouraging them to think outside the box and explore innovative approaches to artistic expression.
2. Enhancing Artistic Skills: To improve participants' skills in various art forms, such as theater, visual arts, painting, sculpture, or any other relevant medium.
3. Promoting Cultural Awareness: To create an awareness of different cultures and traditions through art and drama, fostering a more inclusive and culturally sensitive perspective.
4. Building Confidence: To boost participants' self-confidence and self-expression by providing a platform for them to perform and showcase their artistic talents.
5. Fostering Communication Skills: To improve communication and interpersonal skills through group activities, collaborative projects, and public performances.
6. Exploring Emotions and Empathy: To encourage participants to explore and express a wide range of emotions, developing empathy and understanding for various perspectives.
7. Educational Enrichment: To use art and drama as educational tools, enhancing the learning experience and making educational content more engaging and memorable.
8. Teamwork and Collaboration: To promote teamwork and cooperation through group projects and performances, teaching participants the value of working together.
9. Stress Reduction and Well-being: To provide a space for relaxation and stress relief through creative expression, benefiting the mental and emotional well-being of participants.
10. Cultural and Artistic Appreciation: To instill an appreciation for the arts and culture, encouraging participants to become more involved in the artistic community.
11. Personal Growth: To facilitate personal growth and development, allowing participants to discover their strengths, overcome challenges, and grow as individuals.
12. Entertainment and Enjoyment: To create an enjoyable and entertaining experience for participants, fostering a love for the arts and a desire to continue exploring them.

The ultimate aim is to provide a platform for artistic and personal growth, education, and enjoyment for all participants.

St. Joseph College of Teacher Education for Women, Ernakulam organized St. Chavara feast day celebration of St. Kuriakose Elias Chavara as part of commemorating and honoring the contributions and teachings of St. Kuriakose Elias Chavara on 4th January 2021 from 9.30 AM to 11.00 AM via Google Meet. The students and faculty members from mathematics optional coordinated the whole programme. The chief guest for the day was Dr. Kochurani Joseph, an Economist, Orator, Writer and Academician. She is also the retired Associate Professor and Head of the Department of Economics at Bharata Mata College, Thrikkakara. A total of 100 participants including all of the first year B Ed. student teachers and all the faculty members participated in the feast day celebration.

Even though, the St. Chavara feast day was officially celebrated on 4th of January at St. Joseph College of Teacher Education for Women, Ernakulam, the celebrations began on the 3rd January itself. A virtual tour was prepared and shared via online platforms by the students from Mathematics optional to all of the faculty members, non-teaching staffs and students which marked beginning of the feast for the year 2021. Each student from Mathematics optional had prepared a festal wish which were also shared through online platforms throughout the day. On 4th January 2021, the official celebration started exactly at 9.30 AM with a prayer song by Ms. Sruthy K Shaju, student teacher from second year Mathematics optional. The prayer was succeeded by the welcome speech delivered by Ms. Alvina Carmel, student representative from first year Mathematics optional. Ms. Alvina Carmel officially welcomed all of the participants to the event. The presidential address for the programme was delivered by Dr. Alice Joseph, Principal at St. Joseph College of Teacher Education for Women, Ernakulam. Dr. Alice Joseph talked about St. Kuriakose Elias Chavara and his life works. She emphasized the importance of celebrating St. Chavara feast in educational institutions. Dr. Alice Joseph enunciated that it is important to teach students about his work and teachings which are really inspiring for anyone in the society. In order to honor and commemorate his memorable works, St. Chavara Feast is organized. Dr. Alice Joseph reminded all of the students to have strong faith in God and to contribute to the society in which they live in. The presidential address was succeeded by a video presentation on St. Kuriakose Elias Chavara prepared by Ms. Cris Francis, student teacher from first year Mathematics optional. The video presentation was followed by the feast message delivered by the chief guest for the day, Dr. Kochurani Joseph who is a well-known orator, writer, economist and academician. Dr. Kochurani Joseph is well-known for her thought provoking, reflective and intriguing sessions. Dr. Kochurani Joseph did gave an inspiring talk about St.

St. Joseph College of Teacher Education for Women,

Kuriakose Elias Chavara his life inspirations that one could adopt to live their lives to the fullest. Dr. Alice Joseph enunciated that St. Kuriakose Elias Chavara was a great social reformer who had initiated several reforms much earlier in Kerala and had played a major role in educating and thereby uplifting people specifically the underprivileged in the society. He started educational institutions and became the first Indian who not only provided admissions to those who were considered untouchables at earlier times but also provided Sanskrit education for them which was made forbidden for them. He was a strong believer who took initiatives and contributed to the church, the society and wherever initiatives are necessary. After the feast message, a festal song was performed as a tribute to St. Chavara by Ms. Megha T.M and Ms. Nikhila Baby, student teachers from first year Mathematics optional.

Overall, the programme turned out to be successful in accomplishing in its objectives. The event turned out to be informative for the student teachers. The resource person could make a spark on student teachers to think critically and reflect. The commemoration of St. Chavara left the young minds with inspiration and the motivation to contribute to their society. The programme winded up at 11.00 AM with the vote of thanks delivered by Ms. Lia Rose Tomson, student teacher from first year Mathematics optional.

‘AKANN-ONAM’- Onam Celebration, 2020

Programme Report

Onam is a ten-day harvest festival observed in Kerala and dates back to ancient times. It is believed that the legendary King, 'Mahabali' visits the state at this auspicious occasion as per the mythology. Onam is marked by togetherness, harmony, happiness and enjoyment among people. Every year, people celebrate Onam across Kerala or any other part of the world vibrantly.

The Onam celebration 2020, ‘AKANN-ONAM’ was organized and celebrated by St. Joseph College of Teacher Education for Women, Ernakulam on 25th august 2020 from 3.00 PM to 4.00 PM via Google meet. The festival was celebrated via online platform since the year 2020 was bearing the Covid-19 pandemic phase. The whole Onam celebration was coordinated by the student teachers and Faculty members of Malayalam optional of St. Joseph College of Teacher Education for Women, Ernakulam. Popular artist, Mr. Abhijith Kannur was the chief guest for the programme. A total of 96 participants including 80 student teachers and 16 faculty members celebrated the festival of togetherness via online platform. Dr. Betty P.J, Assistant Professor and Vice Principal of St. Joseph College of Teacher Education for Women, Ernakulam delivered the presidential address for the programme.

Key programmes of the Onam celebration, 2020:

- Performance by Mr. Abhijith Kannur, the chief guest of the programme
- Video presentation on the importance of Onam
- 'Malayali Manka' competition
- E-Poster competition on the topic 'King Mahabali in quarantine'

The whole celebration was filled with joy and excitement. The active participation from student teachers made the celebration more vibrant. Mr. Abhijith Kannur, the chief guest of the programme, with his astonishing musical performance with flute, took all the attention from others during the celebration. A video on the importance of Onam was presented during the celebration via Google Meet. The 'Malayali Manka' and the E-poster competitions had certain criteria to fulfill in order to be qualified for the competition. The following criteria were set for 'Malayali Manka' competition:

- Two student teachers from each optional should participate
- The photograph should be clicked via mobile phone camera
- No editing in the photograph is allowed
- The photographs should be shared on or before 12 PM on 22nd august 2020 for evaluation since the celebration is conducted online

The E-Poster competition has been set with the following criteria:

- The poster should be prepared based on the topic, 'King Mahabali in quarantine'
- The poster can be prepared either in Malayalam or in English language
- Posters should be one's own preparation

- The posters should be shared on or before 12 PM on 22nd August 2020 for evaluation since the celebration is conducted online

Taking into account all of the criteria for the competition and fulfilling them, Ms. Mary Rilu Arooja, a student teacher from Natural Science optional was selected as the winner of the 'Malayali Manka' competition and Ms. Anu Thomas, a student teacher from English Optional won the first position for E-poster competition.

The colorful and vibrant 'e-Onam' wined up at 4.00 PM with the National Anthem.

REPUBLIC DAY CELEBRATION 2021

The event was not just a celebration but also an educational experience that reminded everyone of the sacrifices made by the nation's freedom fighters and the responsibility we bear as citizens of a democratic republic. On January 25, 2021, the Faculty of St. Joseph College of Teacher Education for Women in Ernakulam organized a grand celebration to commemorate India's 71st Republic Day. The event aimed to instill a sense of patriotism and civic responsibility in the students while honoring the historical significance of this day. The Republic Day celebration was a momentous occasion at the college, with active and enthusiastic participation from students and faculty members. The event was organized to allow the college community to come together and reflect on the values enshrined in the Indian Constitution. The celebration was conducted online because of the pandemic.

The event commenced with the hoisting of the national flag by the college principal, Dr. Sr. Alice Joseph. The flag, fluttering proudly, symbolized the unity, diversity, and sovereignty of India.

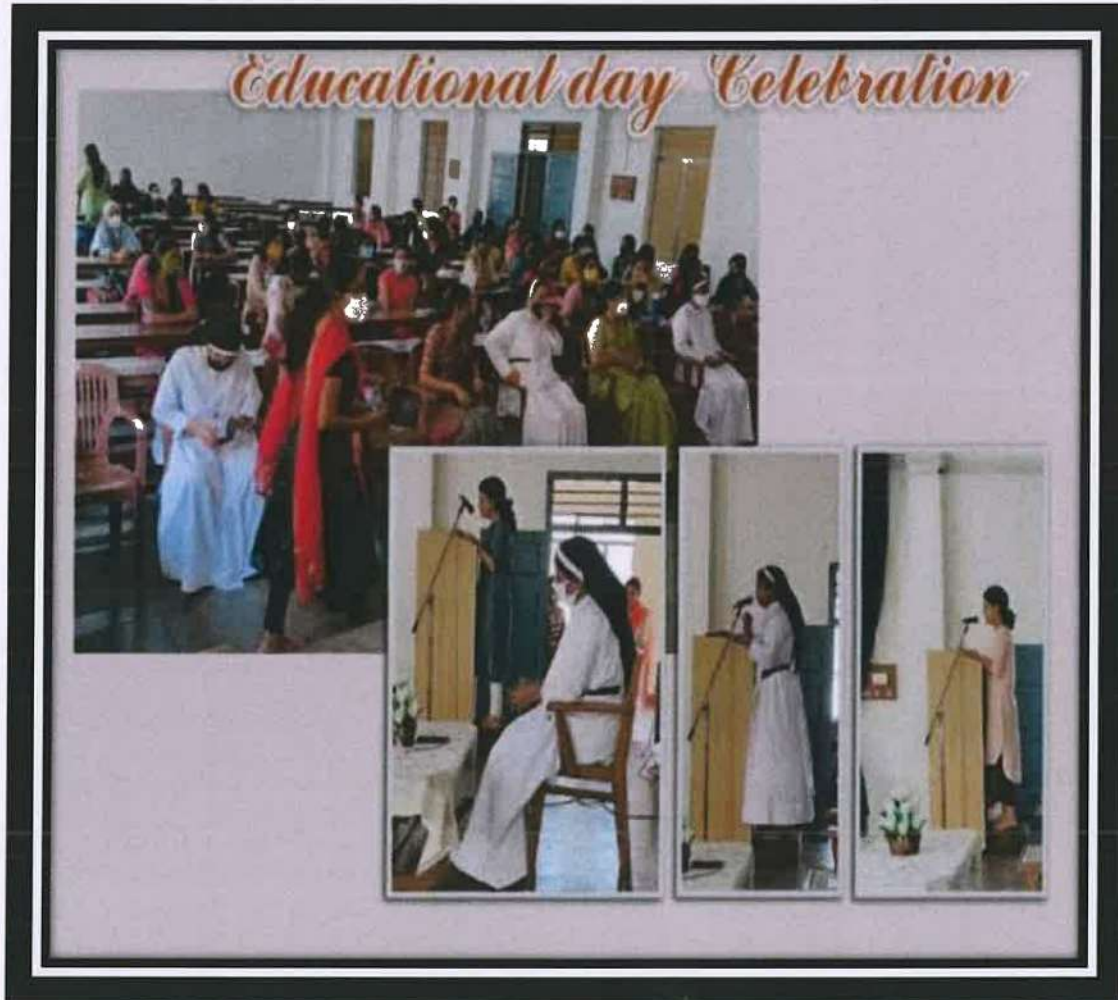

Students from various college departments put up a series of cultural performances that celebrated India's rich and diverse cultural heritage. The event concluded with all participants taking a pledge to uphold the ideals and values enshrined in the Indian Constitution and to contribute positively to the nation's progress. The Republic Day celebration at St. Joseph College of Teacher Education for Women in Ernakulam was a proud and patriotic event. It successfully brought the college community together to celebrate the democratic spirit of the nation. The celebration reinforced the importance of the Indian Constitution and the role of education in nurturing responsible citizens. It was a moment of reflection and inspiration for all those who attended.

On December 18, 2020, St. Joseph College of Teacher Education for Women in Ernakulam experienced a vibrant Christmas celebration FELIZ NAVIDAD organized by the college union. The venue, adorned with festive cheer, hosted a series of engaging events. Students and teachers participated in Christmas-related programs, including a spirited carol competition, organized house-wise.

The responsibility of transforming the auditorium into a festive haven was delegated to different houses, fostering a collaborative and creative spirit. One notable aspect was an interactive session with transgenders, emphasizing inclusivity and understanding. Adding a personal touch to the festivities, optional cake cutting took place in individual classes, enhancing the joyous and communal atmosphere of the Christmas celebration. The event successfully blended tradition, creativity, and inclusivity, leaving a memorable mark on the college community.
