ANNUAL REPORT

2018 – '19

INTRODUCTORY NOTE OF PRINCIPAL

At St. Joseph, The institution endeavors to nurture a community characterized by compassion, equity, environmental stewardship and gender inclusivity. Managed by the Vimala Province of CMC and guided by the visionary principles of St. Kuriakose Elias Chavara, St. Joseph has remained committed to serving society's needs. From its inception, the primary goal has been to nurture empowered teachers who not only embrace faith but also realize their fullest potential to actively contribute to the creation of an enlightened and unified society. Over the years, countless students have passed through the halls of St. Joseph, embodying the institution's vision and mission across diverse spheres.

Gratitude is extended to the entire St. Joseph community, including management, faculty, administrative staff, students, Parent-Teacher Association (PTA) and well-wishers, and acknowledged for their collective efforts. The institution places a strong emphasis on continuous improvement, fostering discussions during staff council and IQAC meetings to evaluate past achievements and identify areas for enhancement. Feedback from students, faculty, employers, heads of teaching practice schools, and alumnae is valued, leading to necessary adjustments in operational processes. With pride, St. Joseph reports excellence across all academic domains.

I take this opportunity to offer my profound gratitude to the staff, both teaching and non-teaching for their co-operation and timely support extended to me for the past 27 years.

I extend sincere thanks to the Educational Agency Rev. Mother Subha Maria and all the former provincials and managers, who have been taking keen, interest in the affairs and activities of this college. Whatever we have achieved is only with the generous co-operation of the management.

I also acknowledge the services of the college union, the house captains, the association leaders, club leaders and class representatives for their initiative, dynamic leadership and mutual support. Dear students my heartfelt thanks to each and every one of you.

I thank Sr. Sicily A.A, and Sr. Jessy M. A , hostel wardens for sincerely carrying out the responsibility of looking after the wards.

I place on record my thanks to the parents and guardians of our students, our PTA – PTA executives, our Alumnae, and all well wishers who helped in the growth of this institution.

Dear students, I wish you good luck and success in the coming examination as well as in future.

Now I bow my head before the Almighty in deep gratitude for all his inspirations, guidance, and care showered on us throughout the past 27 years and especially this academic year.

May St. Joseph, the patron of our college intercede for us constantly.
